

Reconciliation Services Focused on Getting You Paid

Econcile is a cost-effective way to assist pharmacy staff in managing third-party receivables and payments on prescription claims. Perform reconciliation like you have always wanted to but never had the time or manpower. Identify missing checks and underpaid claims and keep a handle on your receivables balance with secure online reporting, all without any software to install or maintain.

Stay ahead of unreconciled claims with Econcile

EnlivenHealth® customers have significantly reined in third-party payments using Econcile. See what they achieved over the course of just 12 months:

Stop leaving money on the table

Using manual processes to chase down reimbursements is not only time-consuming, it's error-prone. Leverage the power of analytics and reporting to identify slow-paying third parties, missing claims payments or checks, and partially paid claims.

Cloud-based and compatible with any pharmacy management system, Econcile:

Econcile has two implementation paths: You can run next-generation reconciliation in-house, using the same tools our experts do, or you can count on us to handle reconciliation for you, so you can focus on your patients.

ECONCILE COMPLETE

EnlivenHealth® enters all payments, generates finance reports, and chases claims on your behalf. A dedicated recon analyst helps you spend more time with your patients and less time chasing down payments.

ECONCILE AUTO

We automatically collect 835 files from payors, match your posted payments to prescription claims, and provide you access to the same platform used by our expert recon analysts so you can handle reconciliations with ease.
